IRVINE, Calif. – KSL Resorts – a hospitality industry leader that invests in and manages world-class resorts, hotels and clubs – has announced the appointment of Nordee Saritvanich as its vice president of investments and business development. In his new role, Saritvanich will expand KSL Resorts’ growing boutique resort platform, targeting leisure-based, boutique hotels in secondary and tertiary destination markets nationwide. The company recently acquired the 124-key Vespera Resort on Pismo Beach, an Autograph Collection hotel, in Pismo Beach, Calif., and 96-key Marram in Montauk, N.Y., and has plans to grow the portfolio to more than 20 assets by 2025.

According to Michael Palmeri, chief investment officer of KSL Resorts, “Nordee brings a great combination of experience and talent, and we are thrilled to have him join the KSL Resorts leadership team as we aggressively grow the platform.”

“KSL Resorts’ 30-year history and successes are rooted in the investment and operation of destination resorts. We see a unique opportunity to parlay that expertise into the boutique hospitality segment,” said KSL Resorts’ president and CEO, Scott Dalecio.
