EXCITING SNOW RESORT NEWS: NEW PEAK TO PEAK POCONOS PASS
Blue Mountain Resort and Camelback Resort Join Forces to Offer Skiers and Riders the Best Value for Two Mountains

POCONO MOUNTAINS, Penn. – Blue Mountain Resort in Palmerton and Camelback Resort in Tannersville, PA announce a new joint pass program for skiing, snowboarding and snow tubing. The Peak to Peak Poconos Pass offers unlimited skiing and riding at both beloved Pocono Mountain giants for the upcoming 2024/2025 season and as an added bonus once purchased the Peak to Peak Poconos Pass is valid immediately for the remainder of the current season. The pass will go on sale on February 22.

This news from the two resorts, each within two hours of Philadelphia and New York City, enables avid snow sports enthusiasts and fans of both Blue Mountain and Camelback to enjoy all the advantages that come with owning this new season pass – starting in the current 2024 season.

“The Peak to Peak Poconos Pass is a program designed for snow sports lovers who live for the thrills, challenges, snowscapes, different amenities and unique activities at both Blue Mountain and Camelback. These fans can now frequent both resorts with a major added-value admission discount as well as enjoy sensational season pass perks at each property,” said Kit Pappas, vice president of asset performance in the East for KSL Resorts.

In celebration of the Peak to Peak Poconos Pass, fans are invited to post a celebratory picture on their public social media pages with the hashtag #peaktopeakpoconos and receive a complimentary hot chocolate at Blue Mountain Resort’s Summit or Valley Cafes, and a hot chocolate and Reisman's Bakery cookie at Camelback Resort’s Rise and Grind on the mountain. This is a one-time onsite redemption for the remainder of the 2024 season. More details will be posted on each resort’s various social media channels under @camelbackresortpa and @bluemtresort.

The 2024/25 season Peak to Peak Poconos Pass benefits and perks will differ slightly.
